Declared and Signed on ____/____/____

I, the undersigned _____

I.D. Card , _____ Issued by _____ (a photocopy of which is hereby attached), hereby declare:

1. I hereby announce the cancellation of the attached notarized document, numbered _____ and titled _____ Which was signed by me before the notary _____ on
____/____/____.

2. I was made aware of the importance of notifying this cancellation of the document to one or more of the following, as the case may be:

- ☐ Those who have the document in their hands or who act on it;
- ☐ Those who hold additional copies of the document.

This is my signature: _____

Section 5 of the Notaries Regulations:

(a) A person who gave a power of attorney to a notary, or signed another document before him, whether the notary edited them or verified the signature on the document; and the power of attorney or other document can be cancelled in accordance with the provisions of the Mission Law, 1965, or any other law by whom who gave it or signed as aforesaid, may notify the notary of their cancellation.

(b) The notice of cancellation as stated in sub-regulation (a) shall be given in writing, and shall be signed before the notary himself or signed before another notary, who shall verify the signature of the person cancelling.

(b1) A notary who has been notified of a revocation as stated in this regulation will explain to the person cancelling the importance of notifying the revocation of the document to one or more of the following, as the case may be:

- (1) To the notary who approved the document;
- (2) To whom the document is in his possession or who acts in accordance with it.

(c) Upon receiving the notice of cancellation, at the notary's office, the notary shall attach it or a photocopy of it to a copy of the cancelled power of attorney or other document held by him and shall state the whereabouts of the cancellation as a note in the said copy, specifying the date the notice was received; and will not give any approved copy of the latter, unless the note about the cancellation will be attached to it.

The comment will include a warning that it does not confirm the validity of the cancellation.
